

LADY ASTOR CONDUCTS LIVELY CAMPAIGN

PLYMOUTH, Eng. Nov. 8.—Lady Nancy Astor is showing every indication of being able to conduct the campaign for her husband's former seat in the house of commons single-handed. Her "antagonists" continue to strike terror in the hearts of hecklers. "Keep quiet, you bolsheviks," she shouted when the hecklers attempted to interrupt her last night. "or I'll come down after you. I'm not going to argue with a lot of half-baked people like you fellows."

Lady Astor admits she rarely knows what she is going to say when she mounts the platform, but declares she can always "choke off the hecklers." She emphasizes her remarks by pacing the platform, pounding the desk or leaning forward and pointing her fingers at persons who are seeking to interrupt her.

EIGHTY PERIODICALS MOVE FROM NEW YORK

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—About 80 periodicals moved from New York as a result of the strike of pressmen expelled from the international pressmen union and walked out of competition, an official of the employing printers' association said. Many of them are now being issued regularly from various cities.

SUGAR SITUATION TO SOON BECOME NORMAL

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—The sugar situation will probably be normal by the end of next week, according to Arthur Williams, federal food administrator. To achieve this result, however, he warned that people must economize. One hundred and sixty-eight million pounds is being unloaded from ships in New York, and Philadelphia and about fourteen million pounds will be released to consumers next week it is announced.

Hard.

"The Germans," said Senator Gray, "expected great things of President Wilson. They're terribly disappointed that he should be so hard. It's like the case of the young fellow who proposed for the pretty girl's hand. Her father gave him a hot reception. The girl, when she heard about it, said:

"Clarence, dear, I can't tell you how shocked I am that dad should treat you like that! Dear me, I idolized dad—and now to think that my lot has been of clay."

"Clay?" said Clarence. "Clay? I guess you mean concrete."—Detroit Free Press.

UNCLE SAM SAYS HERE'S LIBERTY BOND'S BROTHER

Treasury Savings Certificates are a new issue of United States Government securities. They are of $100 and $1000 denominations. They run for five years and bear 4 per cent interest, compounded every three months.

They are little brothers of the Liberty Bond and big brothers of the War Savings Stamp.

A $100 Savings Certificate costs $84 this month. It will be worth $100 January 1, 1924. It is cashable any time with accrued interest at any postoffice on ten days' notice. It is a Government obligation.

A $1000 Savings Certificate costs $840 this month. It will be redeemed by Uncle Sam January 1, 1924, for $1000. It is cashable with accrued interest at any time at any postoffice on ten days' notice.

Treasury Savings Certificates are registered in your name, thus insuring against loss.

They are the best investment in the world.

Buy them at the postoffice.

ARE YOU A CAPITALIST?

The Standard Dictionary defines a "Capitalist" as one who has a "pecuniary surplus."

The dictionary is wrong.

A capitalist is one who has a "pecuniary surplus" which is invested.

Are you a capitalist?

You are if you are buying War Savings Stamps or Treasury Savings Certificates. They represent "pecuniary surplus" or, in simple English, savings and they make your money work by bringing to you 4 per cent interest compounded quarterly.

Are you a capitalist?

Secretary of Commerce Redfield said to the Cleveland Advertising Men, "There are 64,000,000 subscribers to our Liberty Loans. I suspect that many a factory is manned, as I know some Government services are, by a force from top to bottom capitalists in varying degrees, but not the less really."

Don't kick about the high cost of living. Beat it by trimming your sails and buying War Savings Stamps. The capitalists are not kicking about the high cost of living.

Why?

Because they have money at work. Cut your expenses to the bone. Invest in War Savings Stamps.

Be a capitalist.
